Corporate Governance Policies

Shareholders Communication Policy

1. Shareholders Communication Policy

The Company recognises the value of providing current and relevant information to its shareholders.

The Managing Director (or while the Company does not have a Managing Director, the Chairman) and Company Secretary have the primary responsibility for communicating with shareholders.

Information is communicated to shareholders through:

- (a) continuous disclosure to relevant stock markets of all material information;
- (b) periodic disclosure through the annual report (or concise annual report), half year financial report and quarterly reporting of corporate activities;
- (c) notices of meetings and explanatory material;
- (d) the annual general meeting;
- (e) periodic newsletters or letters from the Chairman or Managing Director; and
- (f) the Company's website.

The Company is committed to the promotion of investor confidence by ensuring that trading in the Company's securities takes place in an efficient, competitive and informed market.

1.2 Electronic communication and website

The Company believes that communicating with shareholders by electronic means, particularly through its website, is an efficient way of distributing information in a timely and convenient manner. Where possible, the Company will provide shareholders with the option to receive communications from, and send communications to, the Company and its share registry electronically.

The Company's website includes the following pages, which contain relevant information for shareholders

- (a) section on the Company's corporate governance policies and practices;
- (b) reports section, which contains copies of annual and half yearly reports; and
- (c) Link to ASX announcements

All website information will be regularly reviewed and updated to ensure that information is current, or appropriately dated and archived.

The Company places the full text of notices of meeting and explanatory material on the website.

1.3 Written communication and annual report

Shareholders have been given the opportunity to elect to receive a printed copy of the annual report from the Company. In addition, the Company publishes its annual report on the Company's website and notifies all shareholders of the web address where they can access the annual report.

1.4 Annual general meeting

The Company recognises the rights of shareholders and encourages the effective exercise of those rights through the following means

- (a) notices of meetings are distributed to shareholders in accordance with the provisions of the Corporations Act;
- (b) notices of meeting and other meeting material are drafted in concise and clear language;
- (c) shareholders are encouraged to use their attendance at meetings to ask questions on any relevant matter, with time being specifically set aside for shareholder questions;
- (d) if shareholders are unable to attend a meeting, notices of meetings encourage participation in voting on proposed resolutions by lodgement of proxies;
- (e) it is general practice for a presentation on the Company's activities to be made to shareholders at each annual general meeting; and
- (f) it is both the Company's policy and the policy of the Company's auditor for the lead engagement partner to be present at the annual general meeting and to answer any questions regarding the conduct of the audit and the preparation and content of the auditors' report.

This policy is reviewed annually.
